

Dementia Adviser (Telephone)

Job description

Who we are

Dementia is the UK's biggest killer. One in three people born in the UK today will develop dementia in their lifetime.

At Alzheimer's Society, we're the UK's leading dementia charity and the only one to tackle all aspects of dementia by giving help and hope to people living with dementia today and in the future. We give vital support to people facing the most frightening times of their lives, while also funding groundbreaking research and campaigning to make dementia the priority it should be.

Together with our supporters, we're working towards a world where dementia no longer devastates lives

Our values

Our values tell everyone who we are as an organisation.

Our values make sure that our focus is clear for the challenges and opportunities ahead and remind us what we all stand for.

Our values are evident in everything we do, how we do it and how we work together.

These are not just words on a wall, we live these every day in all our work. We are Determined to make a difference when and where it matters most, by being passionate, focussed and making a lasting impact for people affected by dementia.

Determined to make a difference

We're passionate, we're focused and we make a lasting impact for everyone living with dementia.

Trusted expert

We're listening, we're learning and we use experience and evidence.

Better together

We're open, we combine our strengths, and we achieve more together.

Compassionate

We're kind, we're honest and we don't shy away from challenges.

Through our values we will make the greatest difference for people affected by dementia. Whether you are someone living with dementia, a family member or a carer, a supporter, a donor, a colleague from another organisation, an employer or a volunteer, these four values will shape your experience with Alzheimer's Society.

Dementia Adviser (Telephone)

Position in the organisation

Reports to our National Dementia Support Line

Member of our Dementia Support Line team

Part of our Universal Services directorate

Purpose of this role

At Alzheimer's Society we are advisors, supporters, fundraisers, researchers, influencers, communicators, technical specialist and so much more. We are volunteers, we are employees, and together we are here to make a difference to the lives of people with dementia and their carers.

We are here for anyone affected by dementia to help them navigate some of the hardest and most frightening times of their lives.

We are advisors, supporters, fundraisers, researchers, influencers, communicators, technical specialist and so much more. We are volunteers, we are employees, and together we are here to make a difference to the lives of people living with dementia and their carers.

To be the first point of telephone or written contact for people affected by dementia who need support from Alzheimer's Society, assessing their needs and identifying desired outcomes.

To provide highly responsive, individualised and empathic information, advice, support and signposting/referral service to people affected by dementia and memory loss symptoms and their immediate carers, families and friends.

To work as part of a team across the operating hours of the service, including weekend and evening work as part of a rota.

We are looking for someone who exemplifies our values, someone who is: Determined to make a difference when and where it matters most. A Trusted Expert who believes in working Better Together and demonstrates true Compassion.
